IIK Düsseldorf
Partner for Universities

IIK - die Welt verstehen

What you should know

IIK - What is it?

IIK is an abbreviation for „Institute for International Communication“. The IIK is a non-profit organization (e.V.) in close cooperation with Universities and Institutes for Vocational Trainings. It also advances world-wide exchange. A focal point is linguistic preparation for studying and working in Germany. Founded as a spin-off of the Heinrich-Heine-University in 1989, the IIK finances, among other international projects, scholarship programmes and well-known internet portals, such as „www.deutsch-als-fremd-sprache.de“ to advance German language studies. The institute is a member of many professional associations and a licensed testing centre, particularly for German (TestDaF, Zertifikat Deutsch, WiDaF) and English (TOEFL, TOEIC, GMAT).

References - Who are our partners?

The IIK has made a name for itself. Institutions, associations, universities, and businesses world-wide send their students and employees to take courses at the IIK. They also contract the IIK directly to organize exchange programmes and customized training seminars. A current reference list of our partners can be found on our website.

Düsseldorf - Why is it so attractive?

Participants from all over the world truly love Düsseldorf, the city with the highest quality of life in all of Germany. Düsseldorf is a cosmopolitan city with a dynamic economy and numerous universities, along with lots of nature, from the River Rhine to the Neanderthal Valley.
