BERLIN – WONDERFULLY DIVERSE

This multicultural capital city with its 3.5 million residents stands out not only as the political center of Germany, but also as a world-renowned hub of culture, fashion, clubbing, and creativity. Our office in Berlin is located in a renovated factory building which we share with the Technische Universität (TU Berlin). Officially recognized as a national monument, the building and our training center reflect the special and unique charm of Berlin.

DÜSSELDORF – AN INTERNATIONAL CROSSROADS

International rankings confirm it again and again: Düsseldorf, with its approximately 600,000 residents, is a metropolis with one of the highest qualities of life in the world. Our students love Düsseldorf for its many opportunities for leisure, cultural discovery, and educational enrichment, as well as its proximity to other major cities. IIK is also conveniently located near the city center – after a day's lesson, students can easily make their way to the Rhine river or meet up in the Altstadt (old town) to have a night out.
